For more information about this program please contact the College Centre in Hazelton (842-5291).

REHABILITATION PROGRAMS

Sys Richards is currently offering two rehabilitation programs for long-term care patients at Wrinch Hospital. The programs involve instruction in daily living skills, physical and verbal games, crafts and entertainment; they progress in accordance with individual needs. For more information about similar programs please call 842-5292 or stop by the College Centre.

PEOPLE TALKING BACK

This is a joint project of the CBC and adult educators throughout Canada to enable Canadians to consider their future, their shared problems and prospects. Six T.V. programs, from Sunday, February 4 to Sunday, April 22, will be presented and discussion groups will be formed and in communication around the country. Some of the topics to be considered are inflation, unemployment, confederation, alternative options for the future. If you would like to get involved, to form a discussion group, or to lead a group, please call (842-5291) or stop by the College Centre. The issues facing us are too important to be left to the politicians and the media so please come out and take part. Background reading materials will be available.
